I. DEFINITIONS

"Privilege trip" means a trip that may be authorized at minimum security institutions for small groups of inmates to go into the community for recreational purposes; to conduct seminars or programs or attend other gatherings; to shop or for other purposes determined by the warden to meet the guidelines of KRS 439.600.

II. POLICY and PROCEDURE

Privilege trips may be authorized by the Warden to serve the legitimate purposes of Corrections, the institution and the inmate subject to the limitations set out below. Trips shall not become routine for the inmate population. Wardens may use privilege trips as part of an institutional incentive program.

- A. Privilege trips shall be authorized only by the Warden or in his absence, the Deputy Warden. This authorization shall be in writing.
- B. Inmates authorized to make privilege trips shall be required to read and sign the release.
- C. All trips shall be supervised by on-duty staff members only.
- D. There shall be one staff member for each five inmates unless the Warden or his designee authorizes an exception. A staff member may escort up to ten inmates if the inmates can be adequately supervised.
- E. Inmates shall be under direct supervision at all times. They shall not be released unsupervised in a large area as an arena, shopping center, mall, large store, in the streets or in public gatherings with instructions to report back at a stated time or interval.
- F. Inmates shall be appropriately attired.

RECREATION AND INMATE ACTIVITIES

I. DEFINITIONS

“Recreation Supervisor” means a full-time qualified person whose education, correctional experience, training in recreation and leisure activities as well as supervisory skills are utilized to oversee an institutional recreation department.

II. POLICY and PROCEDURES

This policy shall ensure that all Department of Corrections (DOC) institutions provide a comprehensive recreational program that includes leisure time activities, incorporating gym and outside activities comparable with those in the community.

A. Institution Responsibilities shall include:

1. Maintain facilities in good condition suitable for recreational activities available to the inmate population;
2. Encourage interaction with the community through recreational opportunities;
3. Assess recreational needs of inmates on an annual basis through the recreational committee;
4. Post a daily schedule of available events for the inmate population; and
5. Provide rules and regulations for the gym approved by the institutional Warden or designee.

B. Inmate participation in recreation activities and programs shall be strictly voluntary.

C. An evaluation of the effectiveness and utilization of recreational programs shall be completed by the Recreation Supervisor for submission to the Warden of the institution. This evaluation shall be completed at least annually and include recommendations concerning personnel requirements, program improvement,
