David Bradley Promoted to Education Branch Manager

FRANKFORT, Ky. (Oct. 1, 2018) – Kentucky Department of Corrections Deputy Commissioner Randy White today announced that David Bradley has been promoted to branch manager in the department’s Division of Education. Bradley’s new position is effective today.

“David Bradley’s correctional experience is a welcomed addition to the education division,” said White. “In addition to his tenure with the department, he has a double major in health and physical education from Morehead State University.”

Bradley began his career with the department as a classification and treatment officer at Little Sandy Correctional Complex (LSCC) in 2005. In 2007 he transferred to Eastern Kentucky Correctional Complex (EKCC) and in 2013 he was promoted to unit administrator. He was promoted again in 2016 to unit administrator II before being assigned to oversee the Restrictive Housing Unit. Bradley was also in charge of the Reentry Preparation Dormitory at EKCC where he worked closely with inmates nearing the end of their sentence.

During his time in corrections he has been a member of the Hostage Negotiation Team, institution liaison for the Kentucky Offender Management System (KOMS), network analyst, and PREA compliance manager. Bradley received the LSCC Employee of the Month in May 2006, the EKCC Employee of the Month twice, in 2008 and 2011, and the EKCC Teamwork Award in 2012.

Bradley is a graduate of the 2012 Commissioner’s Executive Leadership Program and an active member of the Kentucky Council on Crime and Delinquency (KCCD). He previously served as president of the KCCD Cave Run Chapter, a member of the board of directors, and president of the state board. He is also an active board member for several community organizations including the West Liberty Kiwanis and Rotary clubs. In addition, he is a member of the UK-Morgan County Extension Council, the West Liberty-Morgan County Steering/Business Development Committee and chairperson of the Morgan County Sorghum Festival Committee.
