Dack Chisholm Promoted to Training Instructor II at Central Regional Training Center

FRANKFORT, Ky. (Dec. 18, 2019) – Kentucky Department of Corrections Training Director Bridget Gilliland today announced the promotion of Dack Chisholm to Training Instructor II at Central Regional Training Center.

“Dack Chisholm is a highly motivated, professional employee,” said Gilliland. “He has a lot of experience in training and will be a huge asset.”

Chisholm began his career in 2010 at Roederer Correctional Complex (RCC) as a correctional officer. At Roederer he promoted his way within the security ranks to captain. He promoted to institutional training coordinator before becoming the training coordinator at Central Regional Training Center.

Throughout his career, Chisholm has received many awards including RCC Officer of the Year, Supervisor of the Quarter, and the 2016 Achievement Award for RCC. He is a 2014 graduate of the I-Lead program.

Chisholm has held many positions to include CERT commander, institutional emergency management chair, armorer, and central region range master.
