

Kentucky Department of Corrections

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Katherine Williams

502-758-5816

Katherine.Williams@ky.gov

Tiffany Lindsey Promoted to District 3 Assistant Supervisor

FRANKFORT, Ky. (March 30, 2021) – Kentucky Department of Corrections Director of Probation and Parole Erica Hargis announced today the promotion of Tiffany Lindsey to assistant supervisor of District 3. District 3 covers Adair, Barren, Casey, Cumberland, Metcalfe, Monroe, and Warren counties.

“Tiffany Lindsey has volunteered to take on new challenges time and time again. Her passion for excellence and commitment to our clients have proven to make her a strong leader,” said Hargis. “As Lindsey takes this next step in her career, I am confident in her ability to succeed and to lead her team with the department’s mission in mind. Lindsey is not only a welcome asset to the D3 team, but the P&P leadership team as a whole.”

Lindsey began her career with the Department of Correction in 2009 as a probation and parole investigator in the Russellville office. In 2012, she gained experience working as a pretrial officer for the Administrative Office of the Courts. Lindsey returned to Probation and Parole in 2015 as an officer in the Franklin office and then transferred to the Bowling Green office in 2018.

During her career, Lindsey has held many roles within the department. She has served as a class D officer, home incarceration officer, district training officer, and district safety officer. She is currently an active member of the Critical Incident Stress Debriefing team.

Lindsey graduated in 2009 from Western Kentucky University with a bachelor’s degree in sociology with a double minor in criminology and gerontology. In 2019, she received the District 3 Achievement Award. Lindsey is a member of the Kentucky Council on Crime and Delinquency and American Probation and Parole Association.

Editor’s note: photo attached

###