

Kentucky Department of Corrections

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Elizabeth Barnes
502-234-0500
Elizabeth.Barnes@ky.gov

Ralph Stevens Promoted to District 7 Assistant Supervisor

FRANKFORT, Ky. (July 17, 2020) - Kentucky Department of Corrections Director of Probation and Parole Erica Hargis announced today the promotion of Ralph Stevens to assistant supervisor in District 7. District 7 covers Boone, Campbell and Kenton counties. He will be located in the Florence office.

“Stevens is a respected career employee whose dedication to the department is unsurpassed,” said Hargis. “He takes a hands-on approach to supervision and is a welcome addition to the leadership at District 7 as well as the P&P leadership team as a whole.”

Stevens began his career with the Department of Corrections as a probation and parole officer in March 2003. He has managed various caseloads, including regular felony caseloads in Boone, Kenton and Campbell counties, as well as inmates and parolees in the York Street halfway house in Newport. Since starting with Probation and Parole, Stevens has been a district firearms instructor and field training officer.

Stevens graduated from Rollins College in 1982 with a bachelor’s degree in American history. He is a graduate of the Department of Corrections 2007 Commissioner’s Executive Leadership Program. In 2006, he was selected as the District 7 Employee of the Year.

In April 1999, Stevens retired from the United States Navy after serving 30 years, mostly on Naval surface combatants.

Editor’s note: photo attached

###