defense of the employee or former employee creates a conflict of interest between the Department of Corrections and the employee or former employee, for civil actions outside the scope of their employment, or for criminal investigation or prosecution.

B. Requests for Legal Assistance

1. Requests for advice or representation shall be directed to the institutional warden for institutional employees, the district probation and parole supervisor for probation and parole employees, the employee's supervisor for central office employees, or the designee of the supervisors listed in this subsection.
2. The warden, district supervisor, or central office supervisor shall forward the request with any comments or recommendations to the appropriate Deputy Commissioner, who shall review the request and forward it to the Office of Legal Services. Adequate background information and the reason for the request shall also be forwarded.
3. Corrections employees may make inquiries for legal advice directly to the Office of Legal Services if situations arise which require immediate legal assistance.
 - a. When making a request, the reasons for the assistance requested and the advice given shall be documented in writing by the employee to his supervisor.
 - b. A copy of the documentation shall be forwarded to the Office of Legal Services.

C. Evaluation of Requests for Legal Assistance

1. Legal representation may be denied if the Office of Legal Services determines any of the circumstances set out in KRS 12.212(1)(a) – (d) exist.
2. Upon the denial of legal representation, the Office of Legal Services shall provide the employee a denial in writing stating the circumstances in KRS 12.212(1)(a) – (d) that form the basis of the denial.

D. Routing of Summons or Law Suits

Upon receipt of a summons or lawsuit, Corrections employees shall adhere to the following procedure:
